Harbor Updates

FAIRCLOTH RESURFACING

Good news: Faircloth Drive has officially been resurfaced.
Bad news: you still can't drive on it yet.

The new surface needs time to cure before it can support vehicles, golf carts, patio furniture, grills, and all the other things we'd normally put on it.

Think of it like a fresh coat of paint. It looks done, but touching it too soon only creates more work for everyone.

Please continue using Evergreen Drive for access and hold off on placing furniture or driving on the new surface until we give the all-clear.

We're in the home stretch now. Thanks for your patience.

NEW ENTRANCE SIGN

Our new entrance sign has officially been installed.

The updated signage provides a more prominent and welcoming gateway to MacRay Harbor while improving visibility for guests visiting our restaurants, event center, marina, Harbor Café, and other amenities.

This enhancement is part of our continued investment in the property and our commitment to improving the overall guest and member experience.

We look forward to welcoming you through the new entrance for many years to come.
